RECOGNITION

WHO COMES

ARNO 34, Basel — architect

I bring the Speedmaster my dad wore to my birth. Anna knows it better than I do now.

FLORA 28, Zürich — illustrator

Thursdays I come with a sketchpad and a movement needing a clean. The vinyl keeps me drawing.

TAKESHI 56, Tokyo — vintage watch dealer

Half my Basel trips start here. Espresso before the trade fair, they'll tell you what Sotheby's won't.

HOW THEY FIND US

INSTAGRAM

macro pivots, espresso crema, vinyl spin loops · never staff faces, never brand-name watches.

SPOTIFY

UHR 3 Thursday Sessions · a weekly 45-min jazz/bossa playlist by Leo, the only merch we push.

QR LIVESTREAM

every client sees their own movement being opened from wherever they are.

SPALENBERG REGULARS

the bookshop across, the bakery on the corner, the bicycle-repair next door · we swap flyers, not ad spend.

WHAT COULD GO WRONG

SWISS REGULATION	watch-repair in CH requires brevet-level credentials · Anna holds Swiss federal watchmaking diploma · Max as co-signer · double-cover.
PARTS SUPPLY CRUNCH	Swatch Group restricting movement parts · source vintage NOS via Cousins UK + Jules Borel + our own Spalenberg donors · 12-week rolling inventory.
MAX IS ALSO THE BARISTA	if Max is sick the espresso breaks · Leo is cross-trained on La Marzocco · Anna's coffee will be bad but survivable.

WHY NOW

Swiss watchmaking went behind glass.
Vintage watches sat in drawers.

We pulled three benches in from the back,
brewed an espresso, dropped the needle,
opened the door to Spalenberg.

Bring the watch. Stay for the side A.
