wood-fired oven requires permits in Mitte

work with Bezirksamt Mitte 3 months before lease signing; backup gas-deck oven spec in drawer as emergency replacement (won't impact bagel quality).

Berlin summer heat — kitchen > 40°C

industrial extraction + 2nd kitchen fan; reduce bake-off to 5am-11am in July/August; shift afternoon to cold-schmear sandwich bar.

Bagel fatigue after 6 months (novelty drops)

seasonal 'bagel & schmear' flavour collabs with Berlin food artists — one quarterly limited-edition (smoked-beet cream cheese, hojicha-walnut schmear, etc.).

Berlin bagels are soft bread rolls with a hole — not bagels. BAGELHAUS boils each ring in barley-malt water before baking it in a wood-fired oven. The crust is chewy. The crumb is dense. It's the way Lower East Side grandmothers rolled them a hundred years ago. Mitte deserves it.
