sound-bath regular slow · silent · atmospheric

Weekly reels of sound-bath ripples, dawn light n light pooling on cushions, one silent-testimonial per month. Zero hustle culture. All text in thin GT Sectra serif.

embedded · trusted

Cross-referrals with Rigshospitalet oncology (20% discount), Copenhagen Business School program, 3 yoga studios. Corporate wellness packages for Maersk, Ørsted, Vestas.

committed · recurring

€180/mo unlimited access. Monthly ritual-drop box for members. Annual silent-retreat weekend at Læsø (island) included for 12-month members.

thoughtful · tactile

Quarterly zine ‘STILHED’ mailed to 300 subscribers. Two guest-teacher events per year (visiting Kyoto & Bhutan practitioners). Free to members.

COMPETITION · COPENHAGEN WELLNESS SATURATED	→	Differentiate on silence, not on poses. No branded aesthetic-fitness content. Target the 35+ executive/creative audience, not the 25-year-old yoga market. Price premium (€180/mo vs €99 elsewhere) signals seriousness.
LEAD TEACHER DEPENDENCY · SINGLE POINT OF FAILURE	→	Train apprentice Mikkel to cover 30% of sessions by month 6. Partnership with 4 visiting senior teachers (one per season). Documented teaching protocols in brand-book for continuity.
CORPORATE WELLNESS TREND VOLATILITY · BUDGET CUTS	→	Diversify: 50% individual members, 30% class drop-ins, 20% corporate contracts. B2C cushion against B2B cuts. Annual silent-retreat upsell (€580/weekend) smooths seasonal dips.

"We have never been so productive — and never so exhausted. Never so connected — and never so lonely. The productivity cult promised us everything and delivered stress, insomnia, and a low hum of despair. RO 32 is not an escape. It is a slow return to the only thing technology cannot optimize: the quality of our attention. Thirty-two square meters of a Copenhagen side-street. Eight weeks to build. One lifetime practice.
