three-bench watch repair atelier

Three benches. One loupe. A watch stopped for twenty years.

Mechanical movement service, vintage restoration, hand-delivered reports. Every repair live-streamed to the owner's phone.

THE RETURN

HEINRICH
68, Basel

I want it to tick until my grandson inherits it.

JULIETTE
42, Zürich

my one inheritance from Grand-mère, I refuse to retire it.

MARCO
34, Milan

Basel has the last real watchmakers who still talk to you eye-to-eye.

HOW THEY FIND US

INSTAGRAM

close-up of pivots, balance wheels, an escapement — never faces of the team.

LOCAL PRESS

Basler Zeitung & NZZ · stories of inherited watches, not price lists.

WORD OF MOUTH

one restored watch per week, handed back, photographed, quietly passed on.

QR AT THE DOOR

passers-by in Spalenberg scan to watch today's live repair feed.

WHAT COULD GO WRONG

PART SUPPLY	vintage balance staffs & mainsprings scarce · maintain three-supplier roster Cousins UK, Jules Borel US, local NOS stock, 12-week moving inventory.
TRUST	entrusting an inherited watch is emotional · every intake filmed, every step photographed, client receives bound repair journal with the watch.
SEASONAL DIP	July–August tourist Basel slows · off-season is restoration-heavy backlog month, three advance pre-paid slots held for regulars.

Swatch Group moves to quartz.

Geneva moves to luxury.

Someone has to stay with the pivots,
the escapements, the tiny screws older than most of our grandparents.

That someone is us, in Spalenberg, now.
