DOÑA ROSA · cocinera · 40 years on the comal · grandmother recipes · 3 guisados by hand

MIGUEL · ayudante + mezcal host · 4 years at family stalls · speaks Zapotec + Spanish + English

DON FELIPE · 62 · local mechanic

Eats the same cochinita taco taco for lunch since 2019. Doña Rosa saves him a clay cup of café de olla without being asked.

MARIA · 31 · designer from Mexico City

CDMX escape weekends. Orders the tasajo + mezcal joven. Brought her abuela last December.

LUCAS & FINN · mid-30s · Brooklyn couple

3-week Mexico trip. Researchched on Eater. Came back three times in four days. Miguel now knows their names.

HOW THEY FIND US

STREET SMELL · 40%

the smell of fresh masa and cooking guisado at noon · no sign needed · comal smoke draws the neighbourhood

INSTAGRAM · 25%

one slow-mo tortilla puff reel per week · no voiceover · 45 seconds of Doña Rosa's hands

EATER / CULTURE PRESS · 20%

one feature in Eater Mexico · mention by Bon Appétit · mezcal writers send friends

CDMX WEEKENDERS · 15%

Mexico City designers come Saturday morning · bring abuelas · stay three hours · order everything

Wood-fire violation · new city air-quality rules.

Catalytic chimney filter installed. Municipal inspection passed yearly. Back-up electric comal certified for days of extreme air alerts.

Doña Rosa is 62. Comal cannot open without her.

18-month apprenticeship for Miguel on masa + guisados. Recipe book notarized. Two neighbouring cocineras on call for emergencies.

Tourism swings · rainy season June–September soft.

Shift to fixed menu del día + delivery (Rappi). Saturday cooking classes for locals fill rainy afternoons. Mezcal sales steady.

WHY NOW

Centro Histórico rents compressed 8% since 2024.

Gen-Z tourism for ‘abuela-grade’ authenticity tripled.

Masa traceability is no longer optional — it’s the premium.
